

Palubinsky Named Director of Business Development At Boomerang USA

Sewell, New Jersey “ Benjamin R. Palubinsky has been named director of business development at Boomerang USA, a leading reseller of high-end, pre-owned office furniture. Palubinsky is responsible for establishing new customer relations and servicing existing clients located throughout the northeast including New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C.

Ben provides our company with another great asset for growth,? says Seth DeForest, Boomerangs founder and president. He is a seasoned professional, who has both the personality and business acumen to provide instant rewards to Boomerang's?

Before joining Boomerang, Palubinsky worked within the hospitality industry at leading Four and Five Diamond hotels such as The Rittenhouse in Philadelphia, Pa. and the Loews Philadelphia Hotel.

Palubinsky attended American University in Washington, D.C. and currently resides in the Center City District of Philadelphia, PA.

Boomerang USA

Headquartered in Sewell, New Jersey, Boomerang USA is a leading wholesaler and retailer of quality, pre-owned office furniture. Unlike competitors, Boomerang buys and sells only high-end furniture while employing the strictest quality standards during its furniture selection and restoration processes. This furniture, which includes cubicles, chairs, workstations, desks, conference room furniture and filing cabinets, is solely the product of premiere brand names such as Knoll, Steelcase, Herman Miller, Haworth and Teknion. In 2005, the company also posted a 46 percent increase in sales growth. For more information, please visit the company's Web site located at www.boomerangusa.com or call 1-856-582-0100.